

'How complaints made against
Victoria Police are managed.'

6.30pm

Wednesday November 18th

AWMU, 3rd floor

251 Queensberry Street, Carlton

You are invited to a public forum on the issue of complaints made against police. We have a panel of speakers who will provide a short presentation on the issue and then we open to hear your questions or suggestions.

Corinna Horvath,

Successfully brought a complaint before the UN Human Rights Committee against Victoria Police and the State of Victoria.

Tamar Hopkins,

Principal Solicitor and founder of the Police Accountability Project at Flemington Kensington Community Legal Centre.

Anna Brown,

Director of Advocacy & Strategic Litigation at the Human Rights Law Centre and Chair of the Human Rights Committee of the Law Institute of Victoria.

Michelle McDonnell,

Senior Policy Adviser responsible for Smart Justice and police accountability projects at the Federation of Community Legal Centres.

RSVP: Committee Secretary alpjandd@gmail.com

We are seeking one page submissions to feed into the policy development process